AUSTRALIAN PM PREPARES FOR UPCOMING APEC SUMMIT

Johnny Kneejerk decides on traditional native Australian costume wear to be worn by world leaders for the post-meeting photo shoot.

After many months of sleepless nights leading up to the September APEC summit meeting, involving world leaders, who will mainly consist of leaders from around the world, Johnny Kneejerk has at last come up with an outfit he feels is truly Australian.

At a cost of almost 12.8 million dollars, the PM feels he has come up with a truly Australian theme.

"I know this may seem a little

'over the top" stated the PM on his regular radio talk-back show, "but you have to realise, buying so much black shoe polish, spears and wooden shields for everyone is something that, although expensive, has to be done".

The PM also added that since he may not be in office after this year, it was his moral duty to waste as much money as possible before Labour got their reckless hands on the cash.

NEW THEME FOR PM

The theme, 'Australia Rising' may be changed after September elections.

In a leak direct from the Prime minister's department, it has been disclosed that the Pm's battle cry, 'Australia Rising' may have to be changed to 'Australia Up-Rising' after the federal elections. The PM has denied that this has anything at all to do with his unpopularity rating.

Take care of those pesky varmints, 4 legs or 2. The results are always the same. Satisfying!
