LIBS BRING IN WEST AUSTRALIAN TO TAKE ON KEVIN RUDD

LEADERSHIP CHANGE IN LAST DITCH EFFORT FOR POWER

In a last ditch attempt to win back deserting voters, the Liberal leadership has changed hands (or wings) once again.

The virtual unknown from West Australia, Izzy A' Swan, has full confidence of gaining victory in the up-coming elections.

"It may be true that I'm a bit of a bird-brain, but that hasn't stopped the Libs over the past 11 years" stated Mr. A' Swan.

The new leader flew into Canberra, landing in Lake Burley-Griffin this morning for his swearing in ceremony.

RETRACTION

A recent article in this newspaper incorrectly named 'Mr. Potatoman' as one of the ringleaders in a drug ring. This was incorrect as it was Mr. Potatohead who was the actual ringleader.

Our apologies go to the Potatoman family and any other vegetables we may have misrepresented in the article.

This apology is extended to any fruits we may have offended as well.
