NSW GETS A NEW PREMIER! AND IT'S A GIRL!

Sydney, December 11th, 2009

The new Premier of NSW, Ms. Kristine O'Really is the latest to enter the ring in an effort to drag the state out of the doldrums.

Ms. O'Really has already released a news media report stating that she is not just a puppet on a string, but a very special puppet on a string.

In an effort to blend in with Australian society, the puppet (probably best known as Ms. O'Really) has been advised to drop the Italian accent she has and go for something more acceptable to Australians, such as a New Zealand accent.

"I'll try und do my bist" she was noted as saying at a recent press conference. "It's jest that I stull huv a lung way to go before I muster this aksunt".

In the meantime, her mentor, puppeteer Eddie, has promised to stay way back out of the spotlight until she accomplishes everything he needs.

THE NEW LIBERAL LEADERSHIP CLAIMS IT HAS THE ANSWER TO IMMIGRATION.

December 11th, 2009

The newly appointed leader of the Australian opposition party, Tiny Rabbit, has announced that the opposition, which opposes absolutely everything it possibly can, has a solution to the influx of boat people into the country.

Instead of housing these people in inhumane accommodation, such as tents on Christmas Island, the government should be turning these boats back before they get to Australian waters and advising the boat people that they still have a 90 day cooling off period in place, whereby they can get a full refund of their money should the people smugglers fail to deliver.

Recent discussions with the people smugglers revealed that they were most willing to give refunds should they be asked for any.

"I've been a people smuggler for the last 5 years" said Isay Phukyoo, an Indonesian people smuggler.

"It's never been about money with me" he stated. "I just want to see people happy. I know that I get very happy when these people pay me so much to send them to what usually ends up as a prison somewhere in Indonesia or Australia".

The opposition shadow immigration minister, Phil Ruddock pointed out that whilst living behind the barbed wire somewhere in the Pacific, these people never knew how good they had it.

In the meantime, new shadow finance minister, Barnaby Jerk has been put in charge of financing any future immigration detention centers. He claims that he can run the centers at no cost simply by using the same Liberal party climate change costing methods.

DID YOU KNOW?

1 - Harry Longbaugh became known as "the Sundance Kid" because he served a jail term for horse stealing in Sundance, Wyoming.

2 - Mike Fink was a keel boatman along the Ohio and Mississippi Rivers and an expert marksman. However, he loved his drink and was a known brawler. One of his favorite games was to shoot a mug of brew from the top of some fellow's head. However, on one night in 1823, he had drank so much that it didn't matter how good were his shooting skills. This time he missed and killed the guy who was wearing the mug on his head. In no time, the dead man's friends retaliated by killing Fink. For whatever reasons, his legend was being told for decades along with the likes of Paul Bunyan and Pecos Bill.

3 - Texas was the most active gunfighting state, with some 160 shoot-outs from the 1850's
